Apply Now

This field school is open to Douglas College Students and students within the Western Canada Mobility Network (WCMN).

WESTERN CANADA MOBILITY NETWORK

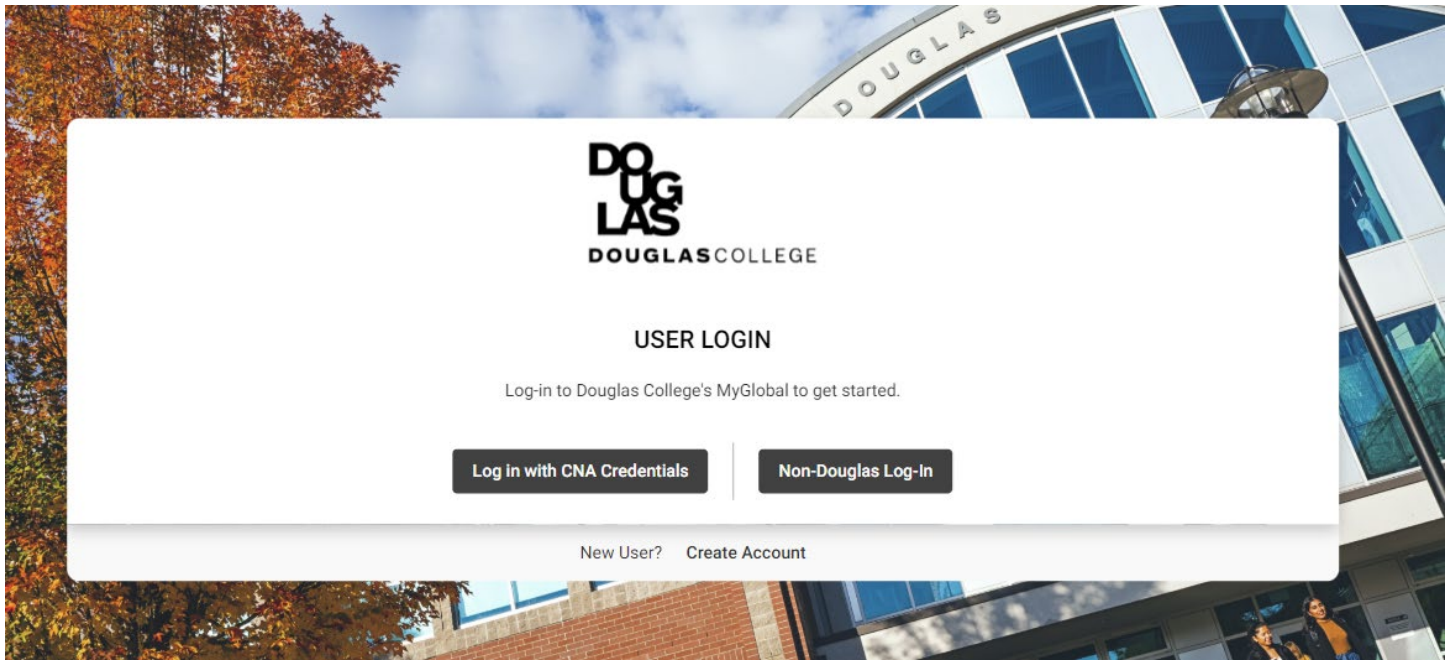

The Western Canada Mobility Network (WCMN) is a study abroad network that includes nine Canadian colleges and institutes. Being a student at any one of the member institutions means you are eligible to apply for any WCMN study abroad program (short-term field schools or semester) offered through any of the partner institutions and receive full academic credit, making your international studies more accessible, affordable and supportive to your specific interests and requirements.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

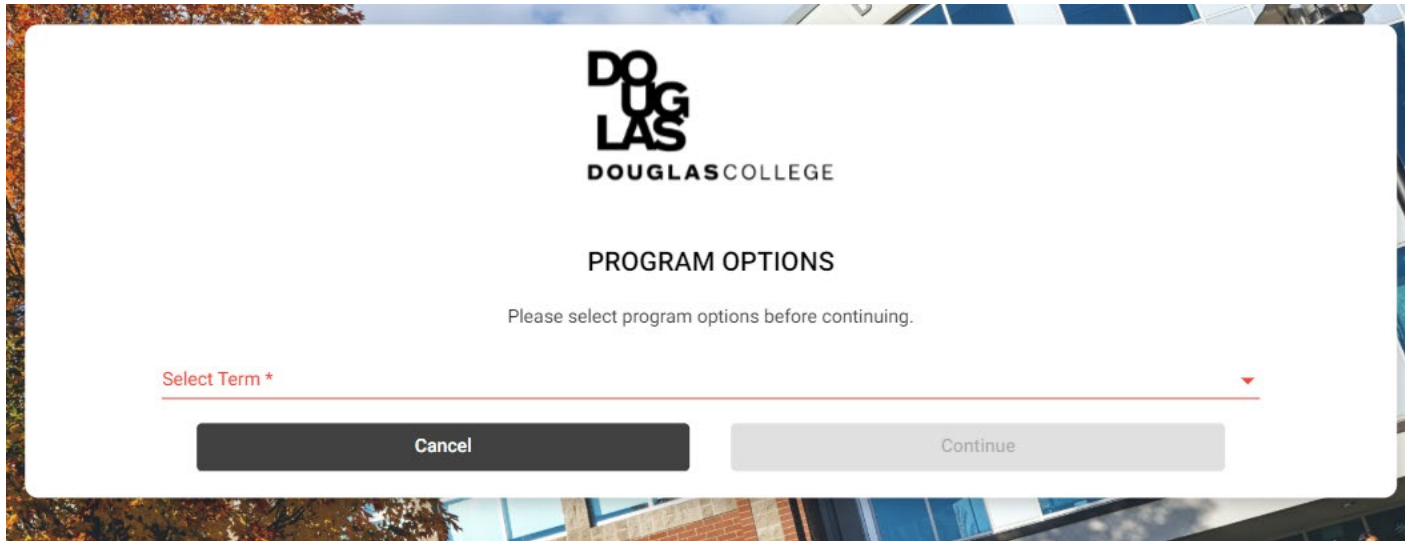

Together with our partner, Universidad Iberoamericana, students have the exciting opportunity to participate in a two-part study abroad climate action focused project. Students will be able to collaborate with students from around British Columbia, the United States of America, and Mexico!
